

Guide on Admission of scholarship International Students to Alzahra University

January 4th, 2016

International Academic Collaborations Office

International Students Administrative Office

In the name of Allah

Article 1. Requirements

1.1. Applicants should obtain the confirmation of Student Affairs Organization of Ministry of Science, research, and technology approving their legal permission to study in the universities and higher educational centers of I.R of Iran, based on the current regulations.

1.2. General qualifications of the applicants should be confirmed by the authorities.

1.3. The applicants are required to possess a non-Iranian valid passport and cannot have Iranian citizenship.

1.4. Applicants need to possess the average grade score of 17 out of 20 to apply for Bachelor's, Master's, or Doctorate programs respectively.

Note 1. The programs are conducted in Persian and English and in case the students are not eligible, they will be introduced to AZFA in order to learn Persian language. The students are interviewed in English to ensure their qualification for attending the programs conducted in English. Having the TOEFL score of 6.5 is required for attending the programs conducted in English language.

Note 2. In some certain fields of study, the applicants are required to pass special practical tests at discretion of related department and faculty members.

Article 2. Types of Scholarship

There are three types of scholarship to Alzahra University including:

Type 1. Scholarship International Students are financially supported by Alzahra University in complete payment of tuition fees and facilities including thesis subvention, medical insurance, single dormitory or accommodation subvention, and welfare services.

Type 2. Scholarship International Students of this type are financially supported by Alzahra University in complete payment of tuition fees and facilities including single dormitory and medical insurance.

Type 3. Recipients of this scholarship are financially supported by Alzahra University in complete payment of tuition fees and medical insurance facility.

Article 3. Required Documents

3.1. Filled-out Scholarship Application Form of Alzahra University

3.2. Two recommendation letters approved by professors of applicants' former university to apply for Master's and Doctorate programs

3.3. Research proposal for applicants of Doctorate program

3.4. Presenting academic Curriculum Vitae (Resume) including academic degrees, published articles, presented articles at international-academic conferences, projects done by the applicants, achieved awards, etc. for applicants of Master's and Doctorate programs

3.5. Scanned certified copies of academic and educational documents, and transcripts confirmed by either the Embassy of I.R. of Iran or official agencies of I.R. of Iran in the origin country. The very documents need to be submitted along with valid Persian and English translations.

3.6. Valid passport or certified copies of identification documents

3.7. Recent passport-size photo of the applicant

The current regulations are ratified by Alzahra University Council of International Academic Collaboration in 4 Articles and 5 Notes, on January 4th, 2016.

No _____

DATE _____

INDEX _____